

2011-2012
The Elyria Rotary Club “Service Above Self” Scholarship and
The Robert S. Cook Memorial Scholarship

These awards are sponsored by the Elyria Rotary Club.

Lorain County Community College is proud to announce the availability of the Elyria Rotary “Service Above Self” Scholarship and the Robert S. Cook Memorial Scholarship sponsored by the Elyria Rotary Club. These privately funded scholarships are intended to reward those individuals who are active in community service or extra-curricular activities. LCCC and the Elyria Rotary Club will award one Robert S. Cook Memorial Scholarship for the 2011-2012 Academic Year and two “Service Above Self” Scholarships for the 2011-2012 Academic Year.

These scholarships are for students attending Lorain County Community College and/or a LCCC University Partner during Fall and Spring Semesters 2011-2012 on a full time basis. The scholarships will be applied to the recipient’s educational expenses. To be considered for the Elyria Rotary Club scholarships, the applicant must meet the following criteria:

- ◆ Be a high school graduate or equivalent;
- ◆ Be a Lorain County resident;
- ◆ Be enrolled full time (12 or more credit hours) at Lorain County Community College and/or a LCCC University Partner during the Fall and Spring Semester 2011-2012;
- ◆ If a previous LCCC or college student, possess a minimum 2.5 cumulative grade point average.
- ◆ Be actively involved in community service, volunteerism, and/or extra curricular activities.
- ◆ Submit two letters of recommendation on the attached forms from community service/volunteer organizations or representatives.

Selection of the Elyria Rotary Club scholarships will be made by the LCCC Scholarship Advisory Committee. Selection will be based on involvement in community service activities. Special emphasis will be placed on community service with a global focus for the Robert S. Cook Memorial Scholarship. Applicants selected for these awards will be invited to an Elyria Rotary Club meeting for recognition and acceptance of the scholarship award.
