ABOUT TARA REDMOND

It is hard to sum up Tara's life in a paragraph. Some of Tara's best traits began at a young age and her contagious smile was appreciated by all. She was strong-willed, yet considerate of others. Tara had a big heart and her love for animals was no less than her love for people. She loved sports and competition on every level. Taking care of and protecting her family and her friends always came first. Tara wanted to make a difference in life and her desire to be successful led her to a career in Nursing.

It is with great pride that Tara gives this scholarship to a student sharing similar dreams.
