

Communication to Currently Enrolled Fall 2020 Students
Re: Spring Courses and Enrollment

Spring 2021 Course Schedule

Welcome to the midpoint of Fall 2020! As we move into the second half of the semester, the Spring 2021 schedule is now available for you to review and register. As a currently enrolled student, now is the time to secure the Spring 2021 class schedule that works best for you. Your Academic Advisor (found in MyCampus) can help you pick the classes that will help you stay on track, meet your goals, and prepare for transfer and career.

We have created a Spring schedule that continues our focus on campus and community wellness, with a combination of virtual and in-person classes. When viewing our Spring class schedule, you will find options in the following formats:

- Online (W): Content delivered through the internet with no scheduled class times.
- Online Live Conference (O): Online “web-conference style” courses meet at designated times and students are required to be present online, live at that time.
- Blended (B): Part online, part scheduled face-to-face following physical space guidelines on campus.
- In-person (P): Held at specific times following physical space guidelines on campus.

You can also learn more about what you can expect in these types of courses by watching this video overview.

Student Resources to Support You:

As you can begin to make plans for Spring 2021, we also encourage you to take advantage of the resources we have in place to support your continued education. At this time in the semester, we realize our students may be facing barriers to completion or are in need of additional resources. As an enrolled student, we encourage you to consult with the Advocacy and Resource Center \(ARC\) for emergency aid assistance and connection to community resources, search for scholarships to help with costs, connect with your Academic Advisor, and Financial Services if you are in need of resources to complete this semester and continue into Spring 2021.

We look forward to continuing to support you as an LCCC student during these challenging times, and are confident you will be able to find flexible course options right for you and your academic goals.

Please continue to follow LCCC Prepared for updated information about plans to help you remain safe, well, and supported as a student at LCCC.

We are here for you!
