

Ashland University

Master of Education

Graduate Programs offered through the Departments of:

Curriculum & Instruction:

Teaching and Learning in the 21st Century (TL-21)

Intervention Specialist Mild/Moderate Needs

Talent Development Education

Reading and Literacy Instruction

Educational Technology

Admission and Application Information

Regular admission procedures are based on evidence of the following:

Completed Application for Admission at Ashland University website www.ashland.edu ; $30 application fee; official transcript showing a bachelor's degree from an accredited university; cumulative grade-point average of 2.75 or above (4.0 system) or a minimum graduate GPA of 3.0 (a minimum of 12 graduate semester hours required.) Provisional admission procedures are available. Please contact Ashland University for more information.

Registration, Scheduling and Advising Information

Students interested in this program are encouraged to contact Ashland University Graduate, Online, and Adult Advising Center for Academic Support
GOA-advising@ashland.edu
Phone: 419-289-5738

Tuition and Fee Schedule

All fees are subject to change; please contact the Student Accounts Office at 800-882-1548 or at

<https://www.ashland.edu/administration/student-accounts/tuition-fees/graduate-school>

Curriculum

The Master's Degree in Education program is for teachers in elementary and secondary schools who desire special work in the content areas of new instructional technologies and understandings by which to improve teaching performance and increase pupil productivity.